

I MOVE that the Washington County Democrats express their deep concern to the Hillsboro City Council over the proposed North Hillsboro URD, both regarding the insufficient public input it has received, and also regarding its proposed impact (loss of approximately $140 million) on education funding statewide.