

Brian Gardner, a precinct committeeperson, plans to make the following motion at the July Central Committee meeting:

“Given that Covid is changing and evolving, with recent spikes in incidents and hospitalizations; we resolve that it is the will of the CC not to hold in person events until the CC expressly permits it, via a new motion.”

This motion is being proposed by an individual member and has not been reviewed or recommended by any group or committee.